Nowadays travelling plays a very important role in our daily lives. I usually travel twice a year because travelling is a good way for me to relax after hard work.

I still remember my parents and I took a vacation on the beach last summer. In the morning, we went to the beach by bus. It was a sunny day, so we enjoyed lying on the beach. How relaxed I felt!

After lunch, we played beach volleyball with another family. It made us excited. My parents also took many pictures. What a wonderful day!

In my opinion, travelling is really great for all of us. We can not only enjoy the beautiful scenery and relax ourselves but also learn much from travelling. So if you can, just go out and enjoy travelling.

Home, Sweet Home

I am Sandy. I live in a quiet neighborhood. There are a lot of trees and flowers around my house. I can enjoy fresh air and hear the birds sing.

There are three people in my family: my mum, my dad and me. We get on very well. We love each other and often help each other. We trust each other too.

I'm lucky that I have a happy family. In the future, I plan to help my parents do more housework and communicate with them often. I'm sure my home will become better and better.

Dear Mrs Black,

I am writing to recommend Wendy as our new monitor. She is hard-working. She does well in all subjects. She's organized too. She often helps her parents with housework. She is very helpful and friendly to others. No matter who is in trouble, as long as she has time, she will offer help. She likes collecting stamps. She also likes playing volleyball. She often goes to the playground with us to play volleyball. So I think she is the best candidate for our new monitor.

That's all about my idea. Thank you for reading my email.

Yours sincerely,

Gao Qi

My Harvest in Reading

Reading has always been a significant part of my life. Recently, I read a book called The Alchemist by Paulo Coelho, which left a deep impression on me.

Through the stories in the book, I learnt the importance of following my dreams and listening to my heart. The book taught me that the journey itself is as valuable as the destination. It also made me realise that challenges are also opportunities for growth.

From this experience, I get to know that reading brings not only knowledge but also inspiration. I believe that as long as I keep reading, I will continue to grow and discover new possibilities in life.

Fighting for Dreams

Everyone has a dream. My dream is to become a doctor. The main reason is that I want to help sick people, especially those who can't afford medical care.

Last year, my grandmother was seriously ill. That experience made me realise how meaningful a doctor's job is. To achieve my dream, I will study harder, especially in science subjects like biology and chemistry. I also plan to read more medical books during holidays. Every morning I do exercise to keep healthy because a doctor needs a strong body.

No matter how difficult it is, I'll never give up. Just like Ne Zha in the movie who fought against his fate, I believe hard work will make my dream come true.

My Life in 20 Years

I'm always working hard for a bright future. I imagine I will have a better life than now.

In 20 years, I will take good care of my parents because I have grown up. I will have a well-paid job. I must work hard and I am ready to take on new challenges. When I am free, I will meet my friends. We will often talk about the past school life and miss our teachers.

I think my life in 20 years will be exciting and wonderful. And I am working hard to make it come true.

Dear Susan,
I'm sorry to hear that you meet some problems. I'm writing this email to give you some advice.
In order to improve your English, you should listen carefully first in class. When you have problems, don't be afraid to ask your teacher or your classmates for help. What's more, you'd better listen to English news, read English newspapers and watch movies in English. And you should be friendlier. You could join in some after-school activities. I know you're good at football. Why not join in the football club?

I think you'll improve your English and make many friends in these ways. I hope you can enjoy your school life there.

Yours,
Gina

Dave is my best friend. He has many problems recently.

Firstly, when he arrived home yesterday, he found his parents fighting with each other terribly. He didn't know what to do then. I think he should talk with his parents.

Secondly, Dave has few friends around. In my opinion, he could choose to be a volunteer. Then he can make friends with other volunteers when doing volunteer work together.

Thirdly, Dave often catches a cold. For this point, it's better for him to have enough exercise and sleep.

It's normal to meet some problems in our life. I hope my advice will help him get better soon.

Value Friendship

Friendship plays an important role in our life. My best friend is Tom. He is tall and outgoing. He has black eyes and black hair. He is very thin. He is really more hard-working than me. I am good at English, but he does well in maths. We like playing basketball. Both he and I like sports shows. Differences are not important in a friendship. We respect and learn from each other through the differences. When we are in trouble, we care about each other and encourage each other. I cherish our friendship and I wish we can make progress together.

That's all. Thanks for listening!
