Lingling is still in the UK with Sam and Amy.

Amy: Look, Lingling! It's a programme about China.
Come and watch!

Lingling: I'm coming!

Old lady: Life was very different in China many years ago.

Interviewer: How was it different?

Old lady: We lived in a small house. We didn't have enough food. There weren't many buses. There weren't any televisions.

Interviewer: How about now?

Old lady: We live in a big house. We've got lots of food. There are lots of buses and cars. I watch TV every day. Yesterday I watched TV with my grandchildren.

Interviewer: Thank you for talking to us.

Amy: China is changing.

Lingling: I miss China! I miss my grandma!

The Girl in the Pagoda

A beautiful girl lived in a village near Luoyang. There was a very tall pagoda in the village. One day, it was very hot. The girl sat under a big tree.

Suddenly a big wind came and blew her into the sky.

The girl's family was very sad.

When the girl opened her eyes, she was at the top of the pagoda. A young man was in front of her.

"Will you marry me?" asked the young man. "No, I won't," said the girl. "I want to go home."

The young man was angry. "Then you will stay in this pagoda," he said.

Every day the young man visited the girl. But the girl still didn't want to marry him.

One day the window of the pagoda was open. The girl looked out. The young man was now a monster! The girl was very frightened.

Later the girl saw a man at the foot of the pagoda. "Help! Help!" she shouted. The man didn't hear her. So the girl threw her clothes out of the window. The man saw the clothes. Then he looked up and saw the girl at the top of the pagoda. He ran for help.

The next day people in the village went to the pagoda to help the girl. When the girl's brother saw the monster, he hit it with a big stick. The monster flew away.

The girl was saved. "I missed you so much!" said the girl to her brother. Everyone in the village sang and danced for many days.
